Mauricio Pochettino

Hello and welcome to today's game.

Today marks the start of a busy period for us with seven big games in the next three weeks so it is important we begin that run with a positive performance here against Liverpool this afternoon.

I was pleased with our display in our last game here at Wembley against Fulham in what was only our second match of the season. Fulham are a good side and put us under pressure at key points in the game. The players reacted well after losing the lead, they were quick to regain control of the match and were ruthless with our chances late on to finish the game off.

We secured another three points following our visit to Manchester United with a big three-goal win, however, we must admit that we were not at our best and rode our luck at times, particularly in the first half. The improvement in our performance was clear after half-time and we made the most of our chances when they came. It was a big result as we have struggled at Old Trafford in the past, yet I still felt we had more to offer looking back across the 90 minutes as a whole.

The following result at Watford was proof of this – it was a reality check for us and showed there is still work to be done. When you suffer setbacks like this, you want another game straight away in order to bounce back. Due to the international break we have had to wait almost two weeks for our next opportunity to put this right as we welcome Jurgen Klopp and his team to Wembley this afternoon. Liverpool have started the season extremely well having taken maximum points so far and will be keen to preserve that record today. It's a great challenge for the players and I believe it is one they will rise to.

Ahead of today's match I wanted to send my congratulations to Sonny who returned from the Asian Games with a gold medal. It was a tough tournament, involving a lot of games and we are delighted he has returned to the squad now as a champion.

With so many big games ahead of us, your support can give us the edge so please make as much noise as you can and enjoy the game.

"Today marks the start of a busy period so it is important we begin with a positive performance"

LEGENDS HIT BACK TO SECURE WIN

Paul McVeigh and David Howells were on target as the Spurs Legends side came back from a goal down to win 3-1 against Houghton & Wyton Vets in Cambridgeshire on Sunday.

The game, held at St Ives Town, got off to a slow start with Houghton & Wyton squandering a couple of early opportunities to take the lead, while McVeigh and Mark Falco were off target in the Legends' best chances of a goalless first half.

Goalscorer Paul McVeigh in action

It was Houghton & Wyton who found the breakthrough three minutes after the interval as Graeme Thackray evaded the centre-back duo of Stuart Nethercott and Justin Edinburgh before steering beyond goalkeeper Gareth Howells at his near post.

That sparked the Legends into life and McVeigh levelled two minutes later, tapping a square ball into the empty net as the hosts' defensive line was caught too high.

Six minutes after that, the game had been turned on its head as a great ball down the left from Falco was well controlled and expertly finished by McVeigh.

David Howells made sure of the win with a tidy finish beyond goalkeeper Paul Miles after good interplay between Glen Southam and McVeigh mid-way through the second half.

Former midfielder Jeff Minton, who featured for our first team in 1992, was included in the Legends side for the first time.

The Legends are back in action next Sunday (23 September) at Codicote FC, Bury Lane, Codicote, Hertfordshire, SG4 8XY. Kick-off will be at 2pm.

Important travel information

After today's game against Liverpool, queues into Wembley Park station will take longer to clear than normal. This is to prevent overcrowding at both Wembley Park and Baker Street stations. Please be patient and listen carefully to announcements from London Underground, Metropolitan Police and Wembley Stadium staff when queuing on Olympic Way.

Alternatively, supporters can use the Bakerloo line or London Overground services from Wembley Central station or use Chiltern Railways services from Wembley Stadium station. The usual managed queueing systems will be in operation at both these stations.

Supporters who do elect to use Wembley Park station and are travelling to Euston or King's Cross St Pancras are advised to use Metropolitan or Jubilee line services to Baker Street and continue your journey by foot or use local bus services 18, 30 or 205. Supporters who are travelling to Liverpool Street are advised to travel on the Jubilee line directly to Stratford and interchange for connecting services.

Supporters using Metropolitan line services to Baker Street for onward travel in central London are advised to interchange onto Bakerloo line services for a quicker and easier journey, as Jubilee line trains are expected to be extremely busy on arrival from Wembley Park. If you are travelling back to London Bridge or Waterloo, please use the Jubilee line from Wembley Park as space to board these services will be very limited at Baker Street.

LADS ON LOAN

In the final week of the transfer window, five of the younger members of our squad headed out on loan to gain experience across Britain and Europe.

After last season's spell at Ipswich Town, defender Cameron Carter-Vickers has returned to the Championship with Swansea City, manager Graham Potter hoping Cameron can help the Swans push for promotion.

Following a strong campaign with Aston Villa last season, Josh Onomah has also returned to the second tier of English football, heading further north this term to join Sheffield Wednesday for the season.

Full-back Connor Ogilvie has rejoined Gillingham after a successful loan spell at Priestfield last season and has already played his first game of the campaign, as he started at the heart of defence in the Gill's 4-0 defeat by Portsmouth, last Tuesday.

Meanwhile, Marcus Edwards has joined Eredivisie side Excelsior and Samuel Shashoua has joined Segunda División B side Atlético Baleares until the end of the season.

DUO ON SHORTLIST FOR WORLD XI

Harry Kane and Kieran Trippier are in contention for a place in the prestigious FIFA FIFPro World XI for 2018.

Five goalkeepers, 20 defenders, 15 midfielders and 15 forwards make up the shortlist, which was compiled from the votes of 25,000 professional footballers from 65 different countries, with votes based on the players' performances between 3 July, 2017, and 15 July, 2018, inclusive.

This is the first time we have had two players in the running and former Spur Kyle Walker is the only other British player in the 55-man selection.

The 2017/18 season was another memorable one for Harry, who was also shortlisted last year. The 25-year-old scored his 100th goal for the club and first Champions League hat-trick in September and he ended 2017 with back-to-back trebles against Burnley and Southampton, taking his tally to a Premier League record 39 in a calendar year.

Harry overhauled Teddy Sheringham to become our top goalscorer in the Premier League era in January and racked up his 100th Premier League goal the following month. His outstanding season concluded at the World Cup, where he scooped the Golden Boot after scoring six times in England's run to the semi-finals.

Kieran made 35 appearances for us last season and established himself as a regular in the England set-up. His performances at the World Cup drew worldwide acclaim with his crossing and dead-ball delivery as good as anyone at the finals. The culmination of his tournament was a brilliant free-kick that gave the Three Lions the lead in their semi-final against Croatia.

The FIFA FIFPro World XI will be announced at The Best FIFA Football Awards™ ceremony at the Royal Festival Hall in London on Monday 24 September.

Obituaries

We were saddened to hear of the passing of our former player Derek Castle on Sunday 19 August. He was 89.

An outside-right nicknamed 'Cannonball Castle' for his powerful shooting, Derek was on the Club's books as a junior but was playing for Letchworth when he was signed on professional forms by Arthur Rowe, who had just led his famous 'push and run' team to the First Division title in 1950/51.

Derek didn't play a competitive match for us. He played and trained with all the greats of that era, but the closest he came to the first team was taking his place in the annual public trial match between the first team and reserves (known as 'Whites v Colours') at White Hart Lane on 11 August 1951, when he was a late replacement for Sonny Walters.

A regular who showed real promise in the reserves and a Football Combination champion in 1952-53, Derek's career was cut down by a serious illness - Ulcerative Colitis - halfway through his second season when he was just 25.

Later an engineer, Derek survived a host of medical problems to live until the age of 89.

Meanwhile, we were also sorry to hear of the recent passing of our former player Tony Searle who died on 22 July. He was 93.

Tony, full name Robert Anthony Searle, was a Tottenham resident and was taken on by Spurs following a trial in 1940. A midfielder, he played successfully for our Junior and 'A' sides alongside the likes of Eddie Baily and Sonny Walters.

Derek Castle

Tony Searle

He joined the RAF in September, 1943, originally based at Cambridge and later in Canada where he continued to play football. Tony was de-mobbed in January, 1947, spending two seasons with Carshalton and returning to his work in the City.

We extend our condolences to their families and friends at this sad time.

Golden Goal

EACH MATCHDAY, ANDY GREEVES LOOKS BACK ON A NOTABLE GOAL FROM OUR RICH HISTORY AND PROFILES ITS SCORER. THIS AFTERNOON, HE RECALLS ERIK EDMAN'S LONG-RANGE THUNDERBOLT AGAINST LIVERPOOL IN APRIL 2005

Erik Edman was one of seven players to make their competitive first team debut for us against Liverpool on the opening day of the 2004-05 Premier League season, along with Sean Davis, Phil Ifil, Pedro Mendes, Noureddine Naybet, Paul Robinson and Thimothee Atouba. The Swedish international defender featured in a total of 30 matches for us in all competitions that campaign including the 1-1 draw with the Reds at White Hart Lane on 14 August, 2004.

The Swede's one and only goal during his Spurs career came in the corresponding league fixture with Liverpool that season. Prior to the Anfield match on 16 April 16, 2005, the Merseysiders had booked their place in the semi-final of the UEFA Champions League, completing a 2-1 aggregate victory over Juventus three days earlier. We had beaten Newcastle United 1-0 in our most recent Premier League match meanwhile.

Attacking the Kop in the first half, our players quickly settled into their stride. A neat passing move involving Davis, Stephen Kelly, Simon Davies and Fredi Kanoute saw Reds defender Jamie Carragher concede a corner as Robbie Keane threatened to run onto Davies' through ball. Keane and Andy Reid combined to take the resulting set piece, with the latter's cross charged down by Stephen Warnock. The ball flew back towards the half-way line, where it was collected by Edman. With no challenge coming in on him, the full-back progressed a few strides forward before lashing a thunderous, left-footed shot towards Jerzy Dudek's goal from all of 35-yards.

The strike changed trajectory as it

gathered pace, eventually ending up in the top, right-hand corner of the Liverpool net. Edman fell to the floor in celebration and was promptly mobbed by his team-mates! In our subsequent matchday programme for the visit of West Bromwich Albion to N17, the defender reflected on his 12th minute goal at Anfield.

"I got the ball outside the box and just shot," he explained. "I wasn't sure what to do at first, I was thinking maybe I should pass, or cross it to the far post, but then I decided to shoot. It was a really nice feeling. I knew straight away it would be difficult for Jerzy Dudek. You have to decide quickly and to be honest, I don't remember what I thought. Perhaps that was the best thing!"

Luis Garcia produced a similar moment of magic to equalise for Liverpool a minute before half-time. Collecting a pass with his back to goal close to the left corner of our penalty area, the Spaniard evaded the attentions of Edman before turning and rifling an unstoppable left-footed shot past Robinson. Moments later, our goalkeeper pulled off a marvellous stop from Fernando Morientes to ensure we went in level at the break.

Ten minutes into the second half, we regained the lead when Keane headed in from a Kanoute cross. The Republic of Ireland international celebrated with his customary cartwheel, front roll and firing pistols in front of our travelling fans. Moments later, a mis-timed challenge by Michael Carrick on Steven Gerrard presented the Reds with an excellent opportunity to equalise, as a penalty kick was awarded. The Liverpool captain dusted himself down and stepped up to take the spot kick himself but blazed his shot into the Kop.

The Merseysiders atoned for Gerrard's miss when Sami Hyypia lashed home a right-footed volley from the edge of our area on 63 minutes. The Finnish international's strike secured a 2-2 draw for Liverpool on an afternoon Edman, for one, will never forget!

We ended the 2004-05 season in ninth position in the Premier League, during a campaign in which Martin Jol replaced Jacques Santini as our manager. Liverpool came fifth in the table and went on to win the Champions League, coming back from a three-goal half time deficit to AC Milan in the final to draw 3-3 and triumph 3-2 in the eventual penalty shootout.

What They Said

"I was standing in the Liverpool area when we took a short corner and the ball went out to Erik. I was hoping he'd put it in the box and when I saw him shaping up for a shot I was thinking 'no'! But what an amazing goal..." - Ledley King

Edman started in our first three Premier League matches of the 2005-06 campaign prior to a transfer to French side Stade Rennais. The Swedish international, who turned out for the likes of Helsingborgs IF, Torino, Karlsruher, AIK and Heerenveen, returned to the Premier League in 2008, featuring in 10 matches in the division for Wigan Athletic.

His last match for the club ironically came at White Hart Lane, as we demolished the Latics 9-1 on 22 November, 2009. The full-back – who won 57 caps for Sweden between 2001 and 2009, scoring once – ended his career with former club Heerenveen before hanging up his boots in 2013.

In the history of the Premier League, only three Brazilian's have received the Player of the Month award – now Lucas Moura has added his name to that exclusive list.

The speedy attacker joins an unlikely trio of his fellow countrymen – Juninho Paulista, Edu and David Luiz - to receive the accolade, after an impressive string of performances throughout the month of August.

After joining the club in January, this was Lucas's first experience of early season action and one he will remember for some time – with his three goals and one assist undoubtedly marking his most impressive period for the club so far.

"What a month, I'm so happy! I worked a lot for this moment," admitted the smiling 26-year-old Lucas.

"The feeling is impossible to explain. I need to enjoy it but also to keep working because I believe I have much more to give and I'm sure we will have a successful season. I believe in my team-mates and I believe in this club.

"I want to deliver much more and make history here. I believe we can do our best to get a trophy"

"For me, the Premier League is the toughest league in the world and to win a trophy like this, to be player of the month, it's not easy. It was a great month for me and also for the team.

"I want to deliver much more and make history here. I believe we can do our best to get a trophy this season because I think we deserve that.

"I want to share this award with my team-mates and with my family, and to keep working because this is only the beginning. We have a lot more in front of us."

A spell of starts and a further advanced role in the team's set-up alongside Harry Kane has proven catalytic for Lucas in finding his best form in a Spurs shirt, along with breaking some personal milestones for the club.

"My first goal at Wembley in the Premier League was very nice, with my left foot too. It's not normal," he added.

"It was a big moment for me and of course, against Manchester United, it was even more special because it's not easy to play at Old Trafford against United. I scored two goals and we won.

"I had the opportunity to play and I needed to show that I have the capacity to play and to help my team-mates."

After his two-goal performance against Jose Mourinho's side, Lucas was brought to tears in an outburst of relief and reaction to what was a difficult start to his time at Tottenham, coupled with a tough conclusion to his spell in France with previous club PSG, where playing time was at a premium at the end.

"The first six months was for me to adapt with my new team and to my new life in England, in another league, to get to know the players and the staff and to understand what the coach wants from me.

"The last seven months in Paris was so, so difficult and then the six months here in a new life, to get to know people, to learn a new language. It has been tough.

"But after the summer holidays, I think I am ready to help the team and show my quality. It was good to relax and come back stronger."

Moving from another European country to the Premier League has proven to be a difficult transition for many players, due to the higher levels of physicality each and every week, but Lucas, with his first pre-season with the club under his belt, has shown no cause for concern. »

DID YOU KNOW:

LUCAS REPRESENTED BRAZIL FOUR TIMES DURING THE LONDON 2012 OLYMPICS. HE PLAYED THE FULL GAME IN THEIR 3-0 WIN OVER NEW ZEALAND AT ST JAMES PARK, AND FEATURED AS A SUBSTITUTE AGAINST BELARUS, HONDURAS AND THEIR FINAL DEFEAT TO MEXICO HERE AT WEMBLEY.

"I think it was very important for me to do the whole pre-season with the team," confessed the Sao Paulo-born Brazilian international.

"I'm so happy that everyone was so good to me from the first day. When you are happy, everything is easier. Naturally, things will come together."

And already, Lucas is brimming with confidence and excited to continue the season in the same grove he has started it in.

"Like I said, it's only the beginning. Of course, I cannot do anything alone. I need to work more because each month and each game is hard, so I need to keep improving my game and giving my best all the time.

"But this is a big club with a big structure. We have great players and so we need to believe."

We will certainly be looking to get back to winning ways today after a disappointing result against Watford before the international break, and there is no better way than getting rid of the bitter taste of defeat with a win over a title rival in today's visitors, Liverpool.

"It was very important for me to do the whole pre-season with the team. I'm so happy that everyone was so good to me from the first day"

The Premier League offers plenty of mouth-watering encounters on a weekly basis and today is certainly one that Lucas has been looking forward to. August's Player of the Month already knows the importance of the match.

"If you want to win the Premier League, we need to win against teams like Liverpool," said Lucas. "Every player wants to play in these games. I believe in my team and I believe in the squad. I think we are ready. We can do a great job.

"There are great games to come but that's why I am here, to play in these big games, to play in a stronger league.

Jurgen Klopp's side arrive at Wembley with a front three of Mohammed Salah, Sadio Mane and Roberto Firmino who will represent a tough test for our boys at the back, the latter a player Lucas is familiar with on the international stage.

"He's a very good player, a very good striker and the game will be very tough," warned Lucas. "Liverpool are very good now but it's football, it's 11 versus 11 and anything can happen. We can win."

The important fixtures keep coming thick and fast, with an away trip to Milan to take on Inter for our first game of this season's Champions League group stage next week - the depth of squad and ability to recover becoming ever more crucial as the season begins to get into full swing.

To become the best you have to beat the best – a mentality that Lucas believes we have to have heading into this years Champions League.

"I think at Tottenham, we are a big club and now we need to show other teams and to the world that we can win.

"Before I was here, Spurs beat Real Madrid and Madrid then went on to become the champions. So why can't we win against Barcelona or Inter?

"It's a good group. I think it is a good way to start the Champions League campaign. It's a good test for us, so let's go, let's work and see what happens."

The Rocket Man!

WE CAUGHT UP WITH FORMER ISRAELI INTERNATIONAL RONNY ROSENTHAL, WHO TURNED OUT FOR BOTH SPURS AND LIVERPOOL DURING A WELL-TRAVELLED PLAYING CAREER

Born in Haifa on 11 October, 1963, Ronny Rosenthal rose through the ranks at his local club, Maccabi Haifa, to establish himself as a first-team regular. The forward netted 38 times in 138 appearances for the 'Green Locomotive', with who he won back-to-back Israeli Championships in the mid-1980s.

Nicknamed 'Rocket Ronny', Rosenthal made his senior international debut as a substitute for Zahi Armeli in Israel's 2-0 victory over Luxembourg on 19 December, 1984. It was the first of 60 caps the player would win for his national team through until 1997, during which time he scored 11 goals. Ronny's form for club and country brought him to the attentions of Belgian side Club Brugge, who swooped to sign him in 1986. He collected a league winners' medal during his three years with them prior to his move to fellow Belgian First Division club Standard Liege in 1988.

After narrowly missing out on a transfer to Italy's Serie A, the start of the 1990s heralded a new adventure for Rosenthal in English football.

"A new manager (Georg Kessler) had been appointed at Standard Liege during the 1989-90 season and he eventually told me I was surplus to his requirements," explains Ronny, who netted 24 times in 54 league appearances in his two-year stay at Liege. "I started looking for a new club and I came very close to joining Udinese in Italy. I had agreed a contract with them but unfortunately, I failed a medical.

"Then I went on trial at Luton Town, who were in the top flight in England at the time. They wanted to sign me, but couldn't afford the transfer. Then Luton-manager Jimmy Ryan spoke to Liverpool boss Kenny Dalglish and offered him some positive feedback about me. That's how the Liverpool link came about. I went there on trial, initially signed on loan and then the rest, as they say, is history. I settled quickly at Anfield and it was a great period in my life. It really gave me that boost that set me up for the rest of my career really."

Ronny made his debut for Liverpool as a substitute for Steve McMahon in the Reds' 3-2 victory over Southampton on 31 March, 1990. His first start for the Merseysiders meanwhile came at Charlton Athletic two weeks later, in a match he will never forget.

"An hour before kick-off, Kenny Dalglish told me I'd be starting the game," recalls Rosenthal. "I scored after about 10 minutes with my right foot, then got my second goal just after half-time with a left-footed shot. I completed my treble with a header, so I believe that's what you call the 'perfect hat-trick'! We won 4-0 and it was a great introduction to the first team for me."

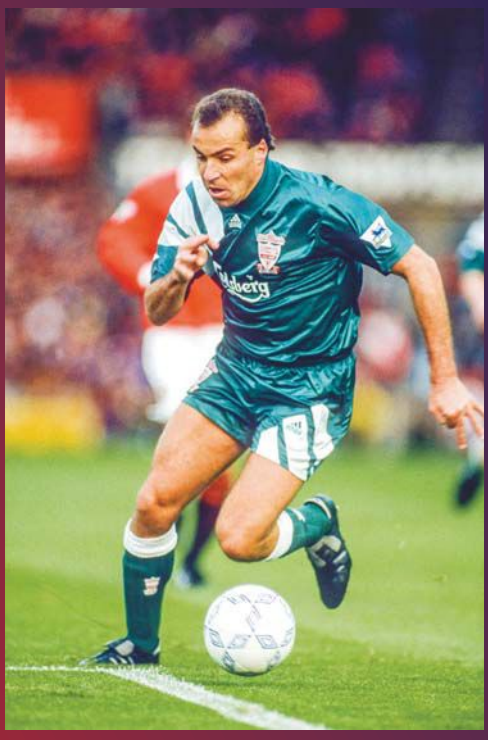
Rosenthal scored seven times in eight appearances towards the end of the 1989-90 season as Liverpool won their 18th and most recent top-flight title. Alas, the Israeli didn't receive a league winners' medal, as he hadn't played enough matches to qualify for one at that time. The forward made his move to Anfield permanent in June, 1990, and he went on to score 22 times in 97 appearances in all competitions during his time with the club.

During the 1993-94 season, Rosenthal played in just three Premier League matches as a substitute prior to signing for us in early in 1994.

"I was looking to leave Liverpool towards the end of my time there in order play regularly," says Ronny. "I also wanted to be selective about the club I moved to next. I turned down a number of opportunities to go elsewhere before Tottenham came in for me. Spurs obviously have a massive history, so a move there appealed to me from a footballing perspective. I'd also always wanted to end up in London, so it worked from that point of view too."

Rosenthal also scored on his debut for us in a 3-1 defeat to Sheffield Wednesday at White Hart Lane on 5 February, 1994. The following month, he got an important goal in our 1-1 draw against Aston Villa during a season in which we struggled at the wrong end of the Premier League table. By contrast, the 1994-95 campaign was a far more positive one that included an FA Cup quarter final victory over Liverpool at Anfield on 11 March.



"I knew I had the ability to produce something special. I had at least one game with all my clubs where I did something memorable"

Despite boasting a frontline dubbed the 'Famous Five', comprising of Jurgen Klinsmann, Teddy Sheringham, Nick Barmby, Darren Anderton and Ilie Dumitrescu, Rosenthal still managed to make 25 appearances for us during the campaign. The highlight of his season came at The Dell on March 1, when he came on as a substitute to score a hat-trick in an FA Cup fifth round replay. We eventually beat Southampton 6-2 after extra-time, having trailed 2-0 at half-time prior to Ronny's introduction.

"It was a great night for me," smiles Ronny, who scored 11 times in 100 appearances for us between 1994 and 1997. "It's one of those matches that will always live in my memory. Everything went for me that night. Throughout my career, I always knew I had the ability to produce something special. I managed to have at least one game with all my club sides where I did something really memorable… be it the hat-trick against Southampton for Spurs, the hat-trick on my full debut for Liverpool and before that, games I had for Maccabi Haifa, Club Brugge and Standard Liege. I still have the hat-trick ball from that Southampton match by the way!"

Ronny's last appearance for us came on Merseyside, in our 1-0 defeat to Everton at Goodison Park on 12 April, 1997. He played his last international for Israel a few months later, in a 2-0 away defeat to Russia. The striker ended his playing career at Watford, scoring eight goals in 30 league appearances between 1997-99. The Hornets achieved back-to-back promotions during that period and reached the Premier League for the first time.

Since retiring from playing, Rosenthal has worked as a football consultant and also represents his son Dean's football agency Interfoot LLP. He will be an interested spectator as two of his former clubs go head-to-head at Wembley Stadium this afternoon.

"It's always an open and exciting game," said Ronny. "Either team can beat the other and I could see quite a few goals being scored in this game at Wembley. Both teams are looking incredibly strong this season and can achieve good things."

JURGEN KLOPP

Since taking charge of his first Liverpool game against Spurs at the Lane in 2015 Klopp has led the Reds to a League Cup final (2016), Europa League Final (2016) and the Champions League final (2018), but a first piece of silverware remains elusive with Gareth Bale proving too much to handle in Kiev this year. Klopp also lost a Champions League final here at Wembley with Borussia Dortmund in 2013 but appears to have invested well during the summer as he attempts to turn Liverpool into genuine Premier League title contenders.

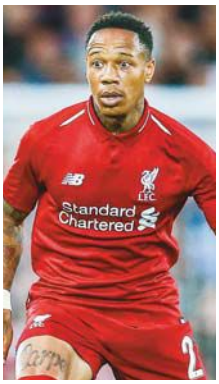
Form Guide:

Liverpool have a poor recent record at Wembley, winning only two of their last seven visits – one on penalties – but they've started their Premier League campaign in fine form, with four wins from their opening quartet of fixtures. They sit at the top of the league, on goal difference ahead of Chelsea and Watford. The first three games saw them keep three clean sheets, a record only ruined by a single concession at Leicester last time out.

22 Simon MIGNOLET

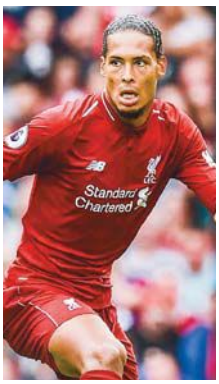
Position: Goalkeeper
Date of birth: 06.03.88
Now in his sixth season at Anfield following a 2013 move from Sunderland, Mignolet has made over 200 appearances for the Reds and has saved eight penalties – one more than the legendary Ray Clemence did during his 14 years with LFC. Mignolet has been capped 21 times by Belgium.

02 Nathaniel CLYNE



Position: Defender
Date of birth: 05.04.91
Having missed just six of 76 Premier League games during his first two seasons at Liverpool, Clyne was ruled out for eight months of 2017/18 due to a back injury. The Stockwell-born right-back was previously with Crystal Palace and Southampton and is two games short of a century for LFC.

04 Virgil VAN DIJK



Position: Defender
Date of birth: 08.07.91
Signed from Southampton in January for £75m, Van Dijk became the first Liverpool player to score on his debut in a Merseyside derby since 1901 when he headed home an FA Cup third round winner against Everton at Anfield. He was appointed captain of the Netherlands in March.

13 Alisson BECKER

Position: Goalkeeper
Date of birth: 03.03.97
Brazil's number one goalkeeper signed for Liverpool from AS Roma in July for a world record transfer fee for a goalkeeper, although Chelsea's purchase of Kepa Arrizabalaga has since broken the record. Known as Alisson, the 25-year-old began his career at Internacional but it was his displays for Champions League semi-finalists Roma last season, a campaign in which he kept 22 clean sheets, that persuaded Liverpool to make their move. Alisson played in all of Brazil's games at the 2018 World Cup in Russia.

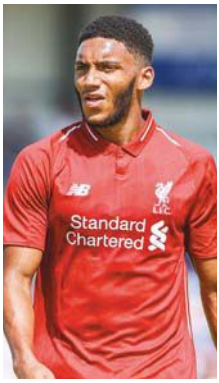
12 Joe GOMEZ

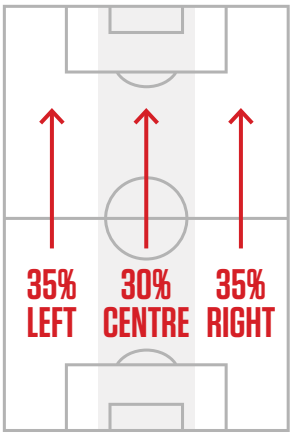


Position: Defender
Date of birth: 23.05.97
Versatile Gomez has played in every position across the back four for Liverpool since joining the club as a teenager from Charlton Athletic in 2015 and started 2018/19 alongside Virgil Van Dijk at centre-half. The England international defender missed the 2018 World Cup through injury.

18 Alberto MORENO

Position: Defender
Date of birth: 05.07.92
A UEFA Europa League winner with Sevilla in 2014, Moreno is now in his fifth year as a Liverpool player but lost his place at left-back to Andy Robertson last season. Capped four times by Spain, his only away Premier League goal came against Spurs at White Hart Lane four years ago.

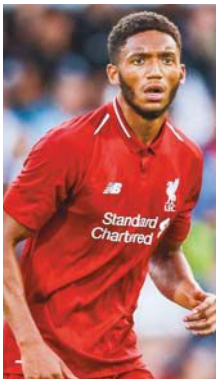
On The Attack



26 Andy ROBERTSON

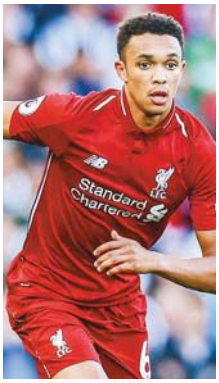
Position: Defender
Date of birth: 11.03.94
Snapped up from Hull City following their relegation to The Championship in 2017, the Scottish international left-back established himself as an Anfield crowd favourite last season. The Glaswegian was an amateur player with Queens Park in 2012/13 before moving to Dundee United.

32 Joel MATIP



Position: Defender
Date of birth: 08.08.91
The tallest player in the Liverpool squad at 6ft 5ins, Matip came through the ranks at Schalke 04 to make over 250 first-team appearances for the German club between 2009 and his move to Liverpool in 2016. He played for Cameroon in the 2010 and 2014 FIFA World Cups.

66 Trent ALEXANDER-ARNOLD



Position: Defender
Date of birth: 07.10.98
Academy graduate Alexander-Arnold had played just 28 minutes of Premier League football at Anfield before 2017/18 but the teenager has enjoyed a meteoric rise, playing in the Champions League final and the World Cup for England as back-up to Kieran Trippier. He turns 20 next month.

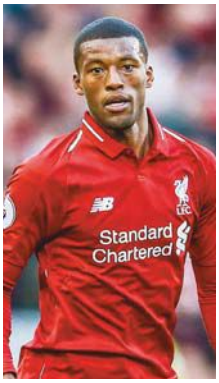
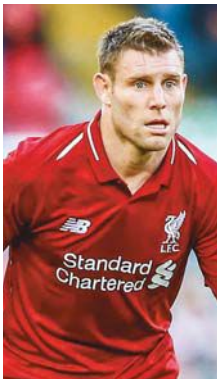
05 Georginio WIJNALDUM



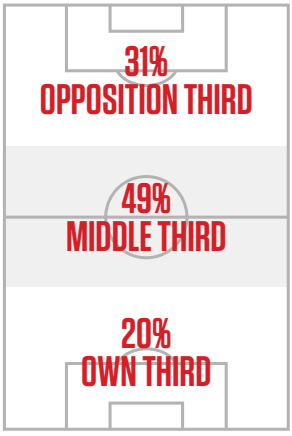
Position: Midfielder
Date of birth: 11.11.90
Although he is now used more often in a deeper midfield role, Dutch international Wijnaldum has netted over 100 goals for club and country during a career that has taken him from Feyenoord to Liverpool via PSV Eindhoven and Newcastle. He was Dutch Footballer of the Year in 2014/15.

07 James MILNER



Position: Midfielder
Date of birth: 04.01.86
Vice-captain Milner set a new Champions League record of nine assists last season as the Reds reached the final in Kiev and he also holds the Premier League record for scoring in the most games (48) without losing. The Yorkshireman netted Liverpool's last goal at White Hart Lane in 2016.

Action Zones



14 Jordan HENDERSON

Position: Midfielder
Date of birth: 17.06.90
Liverpool's longest-serving player – having been signed by Sir Kenny Dalglish in 2011 – Henderson has made over 280 appearances for the Reds and was appointed club captain in 2015. In the 482 minutes he was on the pitch during five 2018 World Cup matches, England were never behind.

The Midfield Man

08 Naby KEITA

Position: Midfielder
Date of birth: 10.02.95
Nicknamed 'Deco' by his father because he reminded him of the Portuguese playmaker when playing football in his native Guinea, Keita agreed to sign for Liverpool in 2017 but under the terms of the agreement remained with former club Red Bull Leipzig for another season. A box-to-box midfielder who scored 14 Bundesliga goals in two seasons having previously won two Austrian league and cup doubles with Red Bull Salzburg, Keita is the first Liverpool player to wear the number 8 shirt since Steven Gerrard.

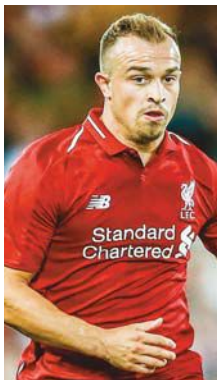
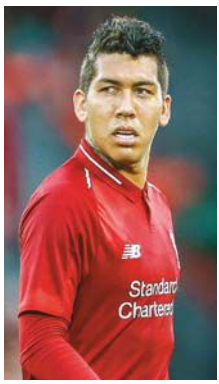
Injury restricted Lallana to just 15 appearances last season and ultimately cost him a place in England's World Cup squad, but the former Southampton midfielder was a Reds' regular during his first three years at Anfield. His next league goal will be his 30th in the Premier League.

23 Xherdan SHAQIRI



Position: Midfielder
Date of birth: 10.10.91
Known for his spectacular strikes, Swiss international Shaqiri was the most recent scorer of a World Cup hat-trick until Cristiano Ronaldo and Harry Kane netted trebles in Russia during the summer. Signed from relegated Stoke in July, he's also played for FC Basel, Bayern Munich and Inter Milan.

09 Roberto FIRMINO



Position: Forward
Date of birth: 02.10.91
With so much focus on Mo Salah last season it almost went unnoticed that Firmino netted 27 times and scored the same number of Champions League goals (10) as the Egyptian and Sadio Mane. A World Cup goalscorer for Brazil in Russia, he's never found the net against Spurs.

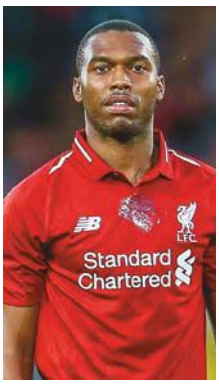
Date of birth: 10.04.92
After scoring 20 goals last season including one in the Champions League final against Real Madrid, Mane has hit the ground running again after also netting once for Senegal at the 2018 World Cup. Signed from Southampton, he played alongside Naby Keita at Red Bull Salzburg.

15 Daniel STURRIDGE



Position: Forward
Date of birth: 01.09.89
Loaned out to West Bromwich Albion during the second half of last season, Sturridge opened his goalscoring account for 2017/18 just 24 seconds after coming on as a substitute against West Ham at Anfield last month. This is his seventh season at Liverpool after moving from Chelsea in 2012.

11 Mohamed SALAH

Position: Forward
Date of birth: 15.06.92
African Footballer of the Year and winner of both PFA Player of the Year and Football Writers' Footballer of the Year for 2017/18, Salah had an extraordinary first season with Liverpool, netting 44 goals and becoming the first man to score 32 goals in a 38-game Premier League season to also clinch the Golden Boot. The Egyptian international was so prolific that he outscored three Premier League teams – West Brom (31), Swansea City (28) and Huddersfield Town (28) – and was on target twice at the 2018 World Cup.

BRINGING TO LIFE ARCHIVE IMAGES AND REFLECTIONS ON PAST HOME AND AWAY ENCOUNTERS BETWEEN SPURS AND LIVERPOOL

BY JOHN FENNELLY

HOME

Liverpool striker Roger Hunt races clear as Alan Mullery gives chase and Cyril Knowles looks for offside. It is August, 1969, and we were in buoyant mood having beaten Burnley 4-0 at White Hart Lane just days before.

But the Reds, on the cusp of their memorable 1970s all-conquering era, were a different proposition that afternoon as goals from defensive duo Emlyn Hughes and Chris Lawler saw us crash to a 2-0 defeat.

Our subsequent programme was certainly critical: "We were well beaten…Liverpool's superiority was obvious. We cannot escape the harsh truth that we offered insufficient challenge."

We did better at Anfield in the October when we drew 0-0. Both goalkeepers – Tommy Lawrence and Pat Jennings – made a number of fine saves while Bob Graham's effort rebounded off our post. It was a good season for Bill Shankly's side who reached the semi-finals of the Inter City Fairs Cup but lost by the only goal over two legs to eventual winners Leeds United. The Reds finished fifth in the league with Spurs 11th.

Everton topped the table ahead of Leeds with the latter side also losing after extra time to Chelsea in the replayed FA Cup Final. Manchester City won the League Cup and the European Cup Winners' Cup.

Sunderland and Sheffield Wednesday went down to Division Two and were replaced by Huddersfield Town and Blackpool.

At the end of the season Hughes joined Mullery and Martin Peters in the squad as holders England headed for the World Cup in Mexico.

AWAY

Ireland international winger Steve Heighway acrobatically beats our legendary goalkeeper Pat Jennings to net the winning goal at Anfield in August, 1975.

We were two goals up at half time through John Duncan and Chris Jones. But once Kevin Keegan pulled one back for the home side from the penalty spot, we came under pressure with Jimmy Case equalising before Heighway's decisive moment as future Spur Ray Clemence looked on from the other end.

Dublin-born Steve later ran a successful Liverpool youth academy and is still well-remembered on the Kop: "Stevie Heighway on the wing…we had dreams and songs to sing."

When the two sides met at White Hart Lane in the December, Liverpool were fifth in the table. But the 4-0 defeat that they inflicted on us that afternoon ended our own five match unbeaten run and helped set the Reds up to go on and win the title at the end of the season.

Heighway again scored the final goal following successful conversions from Keegan, Case and Phil Neal.

The Reds subsequently came from behind on the final day to beat Wolves 3-1, relegating the Molineux club and pipping QPR to the Championship by just one point.

They also won the UEFA Cup that season, defeating Club Bruges 4-3 on aggregate despite going two goals behind at Anfield in the first leg.

Southampton won the FA Cup and Manchester City lifted the League Cup.

Jennings was named 'Player of the Year' with Keegan collecting the 'Footballer of the Year' accolade.

COACHING THE NEXT GENERATION

Our Evening Player Development Programmes take place during school term-times and are designed with the aim for all players to progress through the development levels, using coaching methods from our Academy.

Our development syllabus has been created by our Global Football Development and Academy coaches. Like all of our programmes, Evening Courses apply our Tottenham Hotspur technical DNA to create a player development framework, tailored to produce the right environment for learning, across all ability levels.

Our team of coaches will focus on grouping players within three specific session types to promote progression and individual development:

Development Progression Advanced

Training themes will include:
- 1v1 Domination
- Goal scoring
- Possession and defending

Each activity will be based around a specific area of the game and our FA and UEFA-qualified coaches use inspiration from our First Team and Academy to help the young players on our programmes to develop. Our elite team of coaches will monitor each individual to ensure they are training with players of similar abilities and ages, with the aim to develop and progress each player through the ability levels.

Key programme features:
- Progressive weekly sessions
- Technical sessions designed for all abilities
- Each player assessed individually as part of our football development pathway

All players will also have the opportunity to be selected to play in a match against Academy Elite Development

We provide a safe and secure learning environment on and off the pitch that:
- Creates trust
- Protects self-esteem
- Allows players to play without fear of failure or criticism
- Encourages players to be independent, take risks and think creatively

'Our philosophy here is to give a chance to the younger players. I feel proud the young players can reach their national team and that they belong at a big club like Tottenham Hotspur'. - Mauricio Pochettino, Manager

Jamie Bowden in action against Southampton

Under-18 Premier League: Southampton 2-5 Spurs

Our Under-18s maintained their 100 per cent start to the league season with an emphatic win at Southampton a fortnight ago.

Two route one goals from Jeremie Mukendi inside the first 20 minutes and well-taken strikes from Dilan Markanday, Rayan Clarke and Phoenix Patterson after the break secured a 5-2 triumph, but it was the way those players were picked out from deep that left the Saints helpless.

The home side threatened in the first period with Enzo Robise scoring a penalty after a foul by goalkeeper Jonathan De Bie while substitute Rio Glean grabbed a consolation late in the game, but we improved on our first-half performance to produce a display full of energy, winning comfortably in the end. Jamie Bowden ran the show from central midfield with a dominant performance capped by three assists, with all of our front players twisting and turning into good areas as we went up through the gears.

Spurs: De Bie, Tainio, White, Bowden, Walcott (Statham 78), Binks (Thorpe 76), Pochettino (Clarke 60), A Shashoua (c), Mukendi, Markanday, Patterson. Substitutes (not used): Oluwayemi, Asante.

CHELSEA WIN CAPS UNBEATEN START

We won all four games in the Under-18 Premier League prior to the international break, but it was a 2-0 home victory over Chelsea on 25 August that really stood out.

The electric J'Neil Bennett sent Paris Maghoma through to open the scoring just nine minutes in at Hotspur Way before setting up Patterson, whose shot was parried into the path of Armando Shashoua for the captain to bag an important second with 18 minutes remaining.

Defender Malachi Walcott earlier made a stunning goal-line block and goalkeeper Josh Oluwayemi produced a string of heroic saves to keep the Blues at bay.

Seven days earlier, we won 5-1 away to 10-man Swansea City. Usually a winger, Bennett was deployed through the middle and bagged a hat-trick, with left-back Dennis Cirkin scoring twice on his full debut.

Shaquille Wynter-Coles scored early for the Swans while midfielder Will Rickard was sent off for a second bookable offence with 15 minutes left. Those results were bookended by an opening-day 6-4 win over Brighton and the victory at Southampton covered in these pages.

SILVERWARE IN GERMANY

Our Under-17s lifted the Euro Youth Cup in St Wendel, Germany, last Sunday. Several players came out in credit over the two-day event as Harvey White's penalty gave us a 1-0 victory over Galatasaray in the final, following an excellent 3-0 win over Belgian side Anderlecht in the semis where Rafferty Pedder, Chay Cooper and substitute Max Robson were on target.

In the group stage 24 hours earlier, we beat local side 1. FC Saarbrücken 3-1 – White with another penalty, Tarrelle Whittaker and Nile John scoring – before a goalless draw with Anderlecht. All games were 20 minutes each way.

Winger J'Neil Bennett was named Player of the Tournament and coach Matt Wells singled out Rayan Clarke (pictured) for praise after the wide attacker captained a young squad that included 10 scholars and a number of impressive youngsters from our Under-16s.

SCOTLAND CALL FOR PATTERSON

Among the recent international call-ups for our senior and young players, Under-18s attacking midfielder Phoenix Patterson was selected by Scotland for the first time, joining up with their Under-19s for back-to-back friendly matches against Poland. He featured as a substitute in the first game, a 3-1 victory for Scotland, before playing 90 minutes in a 4-3 defeat. It capped a memorable couple of weeks for the youngster, who scored on his 18th birthday in our 5-2 win at Southampton earlier this month.

WATCH LADS IN EURO ACTION

We begin our latest UEFA Youth League campaign away to Inter Under-19s at Stadio Ernesto Breda on Tuesday. Kick-off is at 2pm local time (1pm UK), with the game due to be televised live on BT Sport. Joined in our group by PSV and Barcelona, the fixtures mirror those of the first team in the UEFA Champions League, taking place on the afternoon of each matchday at the clubs' respective nominated academy stadia. Meanwhile, dates for our Under-18 Premier League Cup matches can be found on the fixture list at the side of this page.

Celebrations after Shayon Harrison's strike at Crawley

Checkatrade Trophy: Crawley Town 1-1 Spurs (5-3 on penalties)

Our Development Squad produced a superb performance to draw 1-1 at League Two side Crawley Town in the Checkatrade Trophy on 4 September, only to suffer heartache in the subsequent penalty shootout.

In what was the start of our second campaign in the competition, where invited Under-21 sides get a chance to test themselves against senior opponents, Shayon Harrison gave our particularly young side the lead five minutes into the second half, but Crawley levelled soon afterwards through Bondz N'Gala.

Brandon Austin and defender Luis Binks denied Dominic Poleon and Lewis Young while Jaden Brown could have won it for us with 15 minutes left. Crawley went on to win 5-3 in the shootout for an extra point in Southern Group A. Paris Maghoma was the unlucky player to see his kick saved with Crawley substitute David Sesay following up with the winner, but the young midfielder could still be proud after a brilliant individual display throughout the 90 minutes.

Crawley Town: Mersin, Young (c), McNerney, Poleon, Nathaniel-George (Galach 46), Maguire, Allarakhia (Palmer 80), Bulman (Sesay 71), Randall, Camara, N'Gala. Substitutes (not used): Morris, Doherty, Connolly, Morais.

Spurs: Austin, Marsh (c), Brown, Walcott, Dinzeyi, Binks, Maghoma, Bowden, Harrison (Parrott 78), Roles, Oakley-Boothe (Bennett 82). Substitutes (not used): De Bie, Duncan, A Shashoua, White.

POSITIVES FOR SHAYON

Shayon Harrison praised the physical resilience of his younger team-mates after the 1-1 draw and subsequent penalty shootout defeat to Crawley Town in the Checkatrade Trophy.

With four Under-18s in the starting XI, the physicality of the match was always going to be a test but 21-year-old forward Shayon, our only player with Football League experience following loan spells at Yeovil and Southend, was impressed.

"It was a very good performance, especially from the young lads who had their first time playing in a proper men's environment against a good Football League side," he said. "The main thing, especially against these league teams, is making sure you compete, because it's a very physical contest.

"After playing a few games at this level, I'm kind of used to it whereas some of the other boys were quite young, so I'm hoping I was able to guide them a little bit. Jamie Bowden in the midfield, in his first game, looked so comfortable. I was really proud of him."

MIXED FORTUNES IN PREMIER LEAGUE 2

Our Under-23s went into last night's clash with Manchester City at Stevenage still looking for their first win of the Premier League 2 season.

After an opening-weekend 3-1 defeat to West Ham, we produced a stirring display to draw 1-1 with Liverpool at Anfield on 17 August, Marcus Edwards cancelling out Bobby Adekanye's opener for the Reds after our centre-back Japhet Tanganga was sent off for handball just two minutes in. Adam Lewis missed the resulting penalty.

A week later, we drew with Brighton & Hove Albion by the same scoreline at Stevenage despite dominating for long spells. Viktor Gyokeres gave Albion the lead against the run of play before Harrison levelled.

Sadly, a sub-par display saw us lose the north London derby at the Emirates 2-1 on 31 August. Joe Willock and Tyreece John-Jules scored for Arsenal, Brandon Austin saved Charlie Gilmour's penalty and young striker Troy Parrott – up from the Under-18s to start regularly at centre-forward – was sent off for his role in a late melee. Left-back Jaden Brown scored a consolation in added time.

GOODISON DATE

Our Premier League 2 away fixture against Everton, initially scheduled to take place on Monday 24 September, will now be played a day earlier on Sunday 23 September at Goodison Park due to the Toffees' involvement in the Checkatrade Trophy. Kick-off will be at 1pm in what will be another good chance for our young professionals to play inside a top Premier League stadium.

Marcus Edwards scores against Liverpool

GREEN'S STUNNER A STING IN THE TAIL FOR BEES

Josie Green scored a memorable winning goal as Spurs Ladies came from behind to defeat London Bees 2-1 in the opening game of the FA Women's Championship at Cheshunt FC.

Karen Hills side had started their 2018/19 campaign with two draws in Continental Tyres Cup group matches against Crystal Palace (1-1) and Brighton & Hove Albion (2-2), losing the first on penalties before winning the clash with the Seagulls 10-9 in a shootout.

But they registered their first win of the season with a battling performance against the Bees last Sunday.

The visitors took the lead in the first half through Paula Howells but a fighting second half display from the Lilywhites resulted in a penalty converted by Coral-Jade Haines and a 25-yard thunderbolt from Green to give Spurs maximum points.

Karen made two changes to the team that started against Brighton as Chloe Morgan regained her position in goal and Haines returned to the midfield for this London derby.

The first half presented very few clear-cut opportunities but it was the away team who started the strongest as Morgan was tested twice in the opening stages with efforts from Howells and Ellie Wilson.

Ashleigh Neville looked a serious threat from set pieces and she came close on two occasions in the space of a couple of minutes. The first was a header into the near post from a corner that was cleared off the line by Annabel Johnson and her second attempt, another header that went inches wide.

London Bees were one up after 22 minutes when a corner kick delivered by Howells found its way into the far corner to the home side's frustration.

Spurs started to settle into the game towards the end of the first half and Sophie Mclean came close to scoring just before the break after she did brilliantly to prevent a counter attack by Bees and tried her luck from 30 yards, only to see her strike marginally miss the target.

Shortly after the interval, Hills replaced Angela Addison with Bianca Baptiste and the striker's fresh legs caused problems for Bees as clear-cut chances started to present themselves in front of goal following the change.

Spurs looked threatening in attack and Rianna Dean came close to finding the equaliser with a header that Sarah Quantrill tipped over the crossbar after a delightful ball into the penalty area from Megan Wynne.

With 73 minutes on the clock

Josie Green gets to the ball first youngster Jess Naz, who was impressive once again, was fouled inside the penalty area by Rosie Lane and a confident Haines stepped up to fire the spot-kick powerfully down the middle to bring Spurs on level terms.

Seven minutes later, Bees failed to clear their lines from a corner and were punished as Green smashed the ball on the half-volley into the top left corner from 25 yards out, with her sensational goal proving to be the winner.

"I don't think I have ever scored a goal as good as that one," said Josie. "I didn't realise how far out it was. I was just concentrated on striking the ball nicely. The keeper got a touch to it but luckily there was enough power in the shot to get it in that top corner and I'm pleased it got us the win."

Karen admitted her team struggled in the first half but was proud of their fight back in the second period.

"London Bees were fantastic in the first half," she said. "They really put us under a lot of pressure. We found it difficult as times and for us to concede in the way we did from a corner is a bit disappointing. In the second half we completely turned that around.

"We gave a performance that showed character in the second half and for us to come back out and win that game after going behind was an important statement to make. The goal from Josie would have been worthy of winning a game at any level."

Spurs Ladies: Morgan, Wynne, Hector, Schillaci (c), Neville, McLean, Green, Haines (Leon 75), Naz, Dean (Wiltshire 75), Addison (Baptiste 47). Substitutes (not used): Gibbon, Filbey.

A word from our Executive Members

As we look forward to the opening of our new stadium, we turn the spotlight on those companies who have joined as Executive Members and discover the background behind their selection of Premium facility. Today, we feature Reynolds, who have joined our exclusive and prestigious Members' Club in the new stadium – The H Club.

Today, we feature Reynolds, who have joined the most exclusive and prestigious fine dining restaurant in the new stadium – The H Club.

Reynolds is a company that delivers fresh fruit and veg to some of the most well-known restaurants, pubs, hotels and stadiums across London and the rest of the UK.

Reynolds' National Distribution Centre is based in Waltham Cross, Hertfordshire, just over 10 miles from Tottenham Hotspur Stadium. The business also has nine regional depots, strategically located across the country.

Tony Reynolds oversees the growth of the business, ensuring that everyone at Reynolds works with passion and integrity, while delivering the quality of service and care that their customers expect. He is joined by his wife Sarah and son Tom, helping to ensure that Reynolds is still very much family-run.

In 1945, Tony's grandfather, William Reynolds, set up a market stall at the Ridley Road Market in Hackney, London, supplying the local community with fresh fruit and veg. That market stall was the very foundation of the company it is today.

While this successful greengrocer may have long outgrown the markets, Reynolds has not forgotten its humble beginnings and East London roots. Many of the team at Reynolds have worked for the company for over 20 years and it's no surprise that there are numerous Spurs supporters among them – especially given that Tony Reynolds has been an avid fan for as long as he can remember!

Describing himself as a 'failed professional football player', Tony is now very proud to supply Spurs with fresh fruit and veg, even if he never quite made it to being able to play for the Lilywhites.

When asked why he selected The H Club, Tony (pictured) told us, "In our business we only select the very best in quality, so it stands to reason that we have the same attitude when it came to choosing the very best premium facility in the new stadium. We are looking to entertaining our valued customers, friends and family in The H Club."

WANT TO HEAR MORE ABOUT JOINING THE H CLUB?

There will be only 180 members in The H Club, which will be the single best experience available at any sports venue, occupying the very best seats "On Four" in the new stadium. You will enjoy an ultra-premium experience offering complimentary access to Michelin Star calibre dining with individually selected wines and to accompany your meal.

You will also have the chance to experience the "Chef's Table" with celebrated chefs in the comfort of this exclusive facility with a private Members Club feel. Members in The H Club will have the greatest exposure to our array of Club Legends, with opportunities to dine on a privately hosted table.

To obtain full details of the unique benefits of becoming a Member of The H Club, please call 0344 216 2018 or email onfour@tottenhamhotspur.com

BRINGING BITCOIN TO FOOTBALL

TOP FACTS ABOUT BITCOIN

1. Launched in 2009, Bitcoin is a peer-to-peer digital currency that allows online money transfers without using an intermediary like a bank

2. Transactions are registered on a decentralised database called a 'blockchain', which are validated by mathematical calculations carried out by a network of computers across the world

3. In May 2010, the first ever Bitcoin transaction took place with two pizzas bought in exchange for 10,000 Bitcoins - then worth $25, now equivalent to around $70 million

4. Payments using Bitcoin can be transferred faster and with lower fees compared to banks

5. Blockchain technology, which underpins all crypto assets, is already revolutionising industries such as finance, health and law enforcement

CLUB HOSTS TOURNAMENT IN MEMORY OF YOUNG FOOTBALLER

The seventh annual Godwin Lawson Memorial Tournament was hosted by the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation recently at Frederick Knight Sports Ground in Tottenham.

The event, attended by Luke Amos and the Deputy Mayor of London for Policing and Crime, Sophie Linden, was held in memory of Enfield-born teenager Godwin, a budding footballer on the books of Oxford United who was fatally stabbed on 27 March 2010 as he tried to help friends during a street attack in Stamford Hill.

Following his death, his mother, Yvonne, established the Godwin Lawson Foundation to commemorate the life of her son. Every year, the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation works in partnership with the Godwin Lawson Foundation to organise a football tournament in memory of Godwin and educate young people about the consequences of gun crime and street violence.

Over 80 teenagers representing clubs from across London took part in the five-a-side tournament and had the chance to meet Luke, who made his first team debut in our Premier League season opener at Newcastle United last month, as he observed their skills and offered words of advice.

Luke said: "Growing up, I was lucky enough to have lots of opportunities to play football and stay away from any potential trouble. Tournaments such as these are a fantastic way to use the power of sport to engage youngsters and make them aware of the dangers of knife crime and gang culture, helping them to keep safe."

As part of the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation's ongoing work to tackle youth unemployment and crime in the area, the Club's charitable body is working in partnership with the Deputy Mayor of London for Policing and Crime to train 'Peace Ambassadors'. These young people encourage other teenagers to sign a pledge against carrying a weapon and act as positive role models within the local community.

The Foundation also delivers the 'Tottenham Hotspur Community League', which runs in partnership with the Metropolitan Police and Haringey Council, and 'KICKS', which uses football to break down barriers between young people and the police.

Richard Allicock, Community Development Manager at our Foundation, said: "We are proud to have supported the Godwin Lawson Memorial Tournament for the past seven years and, to date, over 500 local boys and girls have taken part. It's more important than ever for us to continue to organise events such as these to educate teenagers about the dangers of street violence and inspire them to lead rich, fulfilling lives and contribute to a safer community."

Sophie Linden added: "Godwin Lawson was a young man full of promise and potential whose life was tragically cut short in an act of senseless violence. In the years since his death, his family have worked tirelessly to help keep young Londoners safe. At City Hall we have been working with the Godwin Lawson Foundation, along with community and grassroots groups across the capital, to help root out violence within our communities and give more young Londoners the skills, support and aspirations they need to turn away from crime and fulfil their potential."

The Godwin Lawson Memorial Tournament is funded by the players of the People's Postcode Lottery, who support Tottenham Hotspur Foundation's community development projects. The funding awarded from People's Postcode Lottery enables the Foundation to use the unique appeal of the Club to deliver creative, innovative and engaging programmes that improve social cohesion, build self-esteem and develop positive attitudes among young people.

Foundation delivers coaching programme in India

The Tottenham Hotspur Foundation, in partnership with Slum Soccer, is this month delivering a football coaching clinic for young people aged between 11 and 17 years old in Nagpur, central India.

The programme, which is funded by the Premier League International Development Fund, is designed not only to improve the football skills of the children, but also helps to develop positive behaviour, build their self-esteem and steer them away from potential unemployment or crime.

Later this year, the coaches will return to Nagpur to work closely with staff from Slum Soccer – a charity that uses football to improve the lives of homeless people in India – to identify community champion coaches who will then continue to run the programme once the Foundation coaches return to the UK. In addition to this, two students from the Foundation's Duke of Edinburgh Gold Award will also travel to Nagpur to deliver a football tournament for the youngsters.

The Premier League International Development Fund is a new international collaboration fund which aims to use the power of football to develop a bright future for young people in some of the poorest areas of the world and improve community engagement.

Richard Allicock, Community Development Manager at the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation, said: "To date we have run several successful programmes in India, including the 'Premier Skills' programme we delivered earlier this year in Guwahati in the North East of the country. We are delighted to be supporting a fantastic charity such as Slum Soccer and we hope that the work we do together helps to give children living in the slums a chance to play football and a better quality of life."

Abhijeet Barse, CEO at Slum Soccer, said: "We have delivered a successful programme for a number of years in the slums of India and have a huge number of participants who are determined to improve their football skills and turn their lives around. We are delighted to be collaborating with Tottenham Hotspur Foundation to help us grow our programme and ensure that we can bring joy to more youngsters in our region."

BREAKING NEW GROUND

AS WE PREPARE FOR THE OPENING OF THE TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR STADIUM, ANDY GREEVES TAKES A LOOK AT OTHER 'NEW' STADIA WE HAVE PLAYED AT, WHICH HAVE OPENED SINCE THE INCEPTION OF THE PREMIER LEAGUE IN 1992. THIS AFTERNOON, HE EXPLORES OUR HISTORY AT HULL CITY'S KCOM STADIUM

Hull City's KCOM Stadium – previously known as the Kingston Communications, or just KC, Stadium – has proven to be a happy hunting ground for us since it opened back in 2002. Our five Premier League matches there to date have seen us pick up four wins and a draw, including a 7-1 triumph on our most recent visit on 21 May, 2017.

Built on the site of The Circle cricket ground, the £44m venue opened its doors on 18 December, 2002, as Hull City beat Sunderland 1-0 in a specially arranged friendly match. The Tigers – who had played their final game at their former Boothferry Park ground against Darlington just four days earlier – were victorious in their first competitive fixture at the stadium, beating Hartlepool United 2-0 in the Third Division on Boxing Day 2002.

The KCOM Stadium – which has a capacity of 25,586 – is the home ground of both Hull City and rugby league side Hull FC, who compete in the Super League. A host of rugby league internationals have taken place at the venue over the years, including England's 34-12 victory over Fiji in a Rugby League World Cup fixture on 9 November, 2013. It has also staged concerts featuring the likes of Sir Elton John, Bryan Adams, Neil Diamond, R.E.M, Bon Jovi, The Who and JLS as well as a number of Twenty20 cricket exhibition matches.

The largest attendance at the KCOM Stadium to date came on 17 February, 2004, when 25,280 fans saw England Under-21s beat their Dutch counterparts 3-2. The stadium has staged four Under-21 internationals to date, with Germany, Slovenia and Serbia & Montenegro also having faced the Young Lions there. Hull City's biggest gate at the ground so far came on 10 May, 2010, when 25,030 supporters witnessed their goalless draw with Liverpool in the Premier League. Owned by Hull City Council and the KCOM Group, the stadium is renowned for its unique setting in the city's West Park, which is also home to the 1,500-seat 'Bonus Arena' and a public library. In 2003, the ground was 'Highly Commended' at the British Construction Awards while it was also a finalist in the Prime Minster's Award for Better Public Buildings that same year.

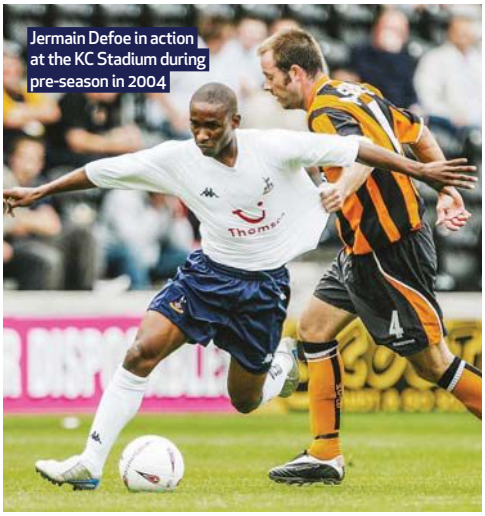
Our first visit to the KCOM Stadium came on 24 July, 2004, when we provided Hull City's opposition in their 'Centenary Game'. New signing Paul Robinson made his first appearance in our colours that afternoon while former Spurs players Nick Barmby and Alton Thelwell started for the home side.

Jermain Defoe gave us the lead in the first half before Stuart Green equalised for the Tigers with a penalty. Defoe restored our lead after the break but Stuart Elliott levelled in stoppage time for the home side.

We won at the KCOM Stadium during Hull's debut season in the Premier League in 2008-09. Goals from Aaron Lennon and Jonathan Woodgate saw us to a 2-1 victory on 23 February, 2009, avenging our 1-0 defeat to Phil Brown's side at White Hart Lane earlier in that campaign.

Defoe stole the show at the KCOM Stadium on 19 August, 2009, grabbing a hat-trick in our 5-1 away win. Wilson Palacios scored his first and, ultimately, only goal for us in 86 appearances that evening, while Robbie Keane was also on target. Hull were relegated at the end of that season. On their return to the top flight in 2013-14, the Tigers gained a credible 1-1 home draw with us after



Jermain Defoe in action at the KC Stadium during pre-season in 2004

Dele scores in our 7-1 win at Hull in May last year

Shane Long gave them a first-half lead before Paulinho levelled for us shortly after the hour mark.

Our former midfielder Jake Livermore gave Hull an early lead in our Premier League match at the KCOM Stadium on 23 November, 2014. We turned the game on its head in the second half though, with Harry Kane equalising prior to Christian Eriksen's 90th minute winner.

We raced into a three-goal lead by half-time on our most recent visit to the KCOM Stadium on 21 May, 2017. A brace from Kane was followed by a strike from Dele Alli just before the break. Victor Wanyama got on the scoresheet in the second half before Kane completed his hat-trick on 72 minutes. Further goals from Ben Davies and Toby Alderweireld saw us to a 7-1 victory over the already relegated Tigers, who got a consolation through Sam Clucas. That win is our biggest-ever away victory in the league.

Prior to this afternoon's match against Ipswich Town at the KCOM Stadium, Hull City have lost all four of their home fixtures so far this season. The Tigers were thrashed 4-0 by Derby County in the Carabao Cup last month, in front of the stadium's lowest-ever crowd for a competitive football match of just 4,666. The venue will stage one of the three test matches in rugby league's Baskerville Shield this autumn, as England take on New Zealand in the first game of the series on October 27.

OBITUARY

We were sorry to hear of the passing of the following Spurs supporters:

Lifelong fan and season ticket holder for over 60 years, ARNOLD BURMAN, who passed away on October 13 last year at the age of 82. As hairdresser to many of the Spurs team in the 1970s, he built up strong relationships with Steve Perryman and Pat Jennings and went to every Spurs game home and away during the 1970s, 80s and 90s. He will be sadly missed by all his family and friends.

ARTHUR RONALD WILLIAM DAVIDSON, known as Ron, who passed away in April at the age of 89. A lifelong fan, his favourite players were Jimmy Greaves and Paul Gascoigne. He will be deeply missed by friends and family.

We would like to extend our condolences to their families and friends at this sad time.

Global Spurs

Our supporters come from far and wide across the globe and are a well-travelled bunch – and we've got the photos to prove it! If you've had your photo taken proudly showing your colours abroad, then we want to see it. Send us your photos from around the world to programme@tottenhamhotspur.com

A Century of SEASONS — 100 —

THE 2018-19 SEASON MARKS OUR 100TH CAMPAIGN OF LEAGUE FOOTBALL. HAVING STARTED IN DIVISION TWO IN 1908-09 AND MISSED A NUMBER OF YEARS DUE TO TWO WORLD WARS, THIS TERM WE CELEBRATE A CENTURY OF SEASONS AND IN EACH MATCHDAY PROGRAMME, WE WILL REFLECT ON OUR PREVIOUS 99 CAMPAIGNS IN CHRONOLOGICAL ORDER

1912-13 MANAGING EXPECTATIONS

Four games into the 1911-12 season, we topped Division One for the first time ever. Twelve months later, we were rock bottom after suffering four straight defeats.

It was a hugely disappointing start as expectations had been so high following the last campaign, with more progress anticipated. Instead, we went 13 matches without a win and by the time Newcastle United arrived at the Lane on November 23, we'd collected just three points and remained at the foot of the pile.

Fortunately, a Jimmy Cantrell goal was enough to give us victory over the Magpies and, perhaps more significantly, the club directors had decided to advertise for a 'Team Manager' for the first time in the club's history. The directors had assumed control of the scouting and signing of players and team selection after Fred Kirkham's resignation in July, 1908, so when former Scotland captain and Newcastle United great Peter McWilliam was appointed in December, 1912, he became our first manager in the Football League.

He took over on Boxing Day, guiding us to a fine 4-0 win over Manchester City, and galvanised our group of players to help steer us away from relegation when all hope had seemed lost at one stage.

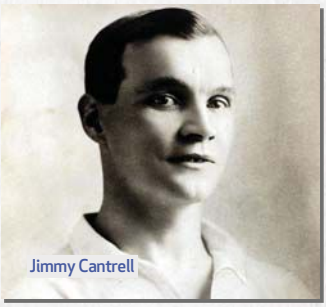
Final Position: 17th
Most Appearances: Bert Middlemiss (39)
Top Scorer: Jimmy Cantrell (12)
Biggest Win: 4-0 v Manchester City (H)
Biggest Defeat: 1-6 v Blackburn Rovers (A)

MAIN MAN → JIMMY CANTRELL

Centre-forward Jimmy Cantrell scored twice at the Lane on October 12, 1912 – for Notts County! The game was abandoned due to fog after 80 minutes and by the time it was replayed on November 4, Cantrell was a Spurs player. He opened his Spurs account with a brace against Aston Villa and scored seven times during December as we started to turn our frustrating season around.



Jimmy Cantrell

KEY GAME

Spurs 4 Manchester City 0
White Hart Lane
December 26, 1912

Manchester City were top of the table when we drew 2-2 with them at Hyde Road on Christmas Day of 1912 and then defeated them 4-0 at the Lane just 24 hours later. New manager Peter McWilliam didn't tinker with the side too much but clearly inspired the team and with Jimmy Cantrell scoring his first Spurs hat-trick, it was a momentous win. Billy Minter was also on target.

1913-14 SURVIVING AGAIN

After just three matches of the 1913-14 season, we were only kept off top spot of the First Division by goal difference from Blackburn Rovers. But while Rovers went on to be crowned champions of England, consistency was once again our downfall and we finished the campaign just four points from relegation.

To be fair, it was a very tight division though and come the final reckoning in April, 1914, only 10 points separated Aston Villa in second place with ourselves and Sheffield Wednesday in 17th and 18th respectively.

We drew home and away with the eventual champions and enjoyed home wins against the likes of Oldham Athletic, West Brom and Bolton Wanderers, who all finished in the top six. But on the road we struggled once again, collecting just three away wins and two of them came in our opening two matches!

However, we were always just ahead of the curve in terms of relegation and had picked up enough points that defeat in our final three matches, without scoring a goal, didn't affect our First Division status.

DIVISION ONE

Manager: Peter McWilliam

MAIN MAN → BOBBY STEEL

Having made his debut in our first-ever Football League game against Wolves in September, 1908, half-back Bobby Steel was a stalwart of our early days in the competition and showed his worth once again during 1913-14. He missed just one game as manager Peter McWilliam relied on his experience and ability during a topsy-turvey season.

Bobby Steel

KEY GAME

Spurs 3 Oldham Athletic 1
White Hart Lane
January 17, 1914

Having gone six weeks without a league win and suffered four straight defeats in the process, we were slipping perilously close to the relegation zone when Oldham arrived in N17 early in the New Year. Buoyed by the fact we'd won all four previous home games against the Latics in league action, we took the game to the visitors and debutants Tommy Clay and Harry Sparrow made key contributions, not least Sparrow's brace of goals. Ed Lightfoot was also on target in a win which restored some much-needed confidence.

Beating Manchester City 3-1 in September, 1913

1914-15 ROCK BOTTOM

With the outbreak of World War One in July, 1914, there were calls in some quarters for football to be suspended but the decision was taken to continue the sport to help provide some entertainment during a difficult time for the country.

However, we probably wished the 1914-15 season had been postponed because, come the end of the campaign, we finished bottom of Division One. It was a tough season for everyone, with many players joining up to the war effort but the game adopting a 'business as usual' attitude.

On the pitch, we took six matches before registering our first win the in the division – a 2-0 success against West Brom – and then suffered some hefty away defeats at Newcastle United (0-4) and Liverpool (2-7) before picking up November victories at the Lane against Bradford City (3-0) and Manchester United (2-0), to help us climb away from the foot of the table.

We did enjoy a 6-1 Boxing Day bonanza against Sheffield Wednesday but throughout the second half of the season we struggled to find any rhythm. A crazy 7-5 defeat at Middlesbrough didn't help matters and when we took on Sheffield United in our final home game of the season, we needed more than the 1-1 draw.

We were third from bottom going into the game against the Blades, but that draw followed by a final day 5-0 drubbing at Sunderland, coupled with Chelsea and Manchester United collecting enough points in their remaining games to overtake us, saw us end the season rock bottom.

Fanny Walden

MAIN MAN → BERT BLISS

The inside-forward made his debut in April, 1912, and fitted quickly into the side even if the goals didn't immediately come. But this was his breakthrough season as he netted 21 times in the league, including four in the 6-1 win over Sheffield Wednesday and a hat-trick against Bolton.

KEY GAME

West Brom 3 Spurs 2
The Hawthorns
April 6, 1915

Prior to this trip to the Black Country, we'd gone five games unbeaten and were rallying in our bid to avoid relegation. A result against the Baggies would have been another major step towards survival but instead we conceded three goals in the first half to leave us with a mountain to climb. We came close to turning the game around though, as Bobby Steel and Jimmy Cantrell pulled goals back before the latter was injured and had to go off. Despite being a man down, we almost levelled it up with Fanny Walden and Bert Middlemiss going close, but just couldn't find the equaliser. Defeat was a real blow, one from which we never really recovered in our final three games.

1919-20 DOWN...BUT NOT OUT

At the conclusion of the 1914-15 campaign, league football was indeed suspended due to the First World War and didn't resume until hostilities were over, starting up five years later in 1919-20. Having finished bottom of Division One last time out, we began our 1919-20 season in the Second Division as one would expect – except it wasn't quite as straight-forward as that.

After the war, the Football League decided to increase the First Division by two clubs, which everyone assumed would mean Spurs and Chelsea, the bottom two from the 1914-15 Division One table, would retain their places and the top two from the Second Division – Derby County and Preston North End – would get promoted.

Chelsea, Derby and Preston were all given their places at a League meeting in March, 1919, while the last place was voted on, with Arsenal – who finished fifth in Division Two in 1914-15 – receiving 18 votes to our five. No explanation was ever given and the Gunners took our place in Division One as we dropped down to the Second Division.

Although bitterly angry at this turn of events, there was little we could do other than try to win back our place in the top flight, which we did with a dominant league campaign. We won 11 of our opening 12 league matches and strolled to the Second Division title for the first time in our history, losing just four of our 42 games and scoring 102 goals.

MAIN MAN → BERT BLISS

Despite having missed five seasons of competitive football due to the war, Bert Bliss hadn't lost any of his sharpness in front of goal. Ever-present in 1919-20, he netted 12 times in our opening 10 games and his 31 league strikes contributed hugely to our promotion.

KEY GAME

Coventry City 0 Spurs 5
Highfield Road
August 30, 1919

With a new-look team and the frustration of relegation hanging over us, it might have taken us some time to get into our stride at the start of the 1919-20 season, but nothing could have been further from the truth. Jimmy Chipperfield, Alex Lindsay and Bert Smith all made their debuts away to Coventry City on the opening day as Peter McWilliam's team made a flying start, enjoying a 5-0 demolition of the Sky Blues in what was their first-ever game in the Football League. Chipperfield scored twice as did Bert Bliss, with Arthur Grimsdell also on the scoresheet, setting the tone for the rest of our campaign.

We do not tolerate discrimination of any sort at the Club, on the pitch or in the stands. If you experience any form of discrimination, help us to eliminate it from football by reporting it.

If you experience anti-social behaviour close to you, please send a text to 87474 with: FOUL (language & behaviour); RACISM (Racist chanting & shouting); HPH (Homophobic chanting); DRINK (Drinking alcohol in view of the pitch); SMOKE (Smoking in the stadium); STAND (Standing up); PYRO (use of or intended use of any pyrotechnic or smoke bomb), along with your location and the location of the offence – Block, Row, Seat. Foul, abusive and racist language will not be tolerated in this Stadium, but should you experience any of these and wish to report it, you can do so by texting the Control Room on the above number.

You do not have to put up with mindless supporters who are intent on ruining your day with us, so use the system, report the individuals and let us take it from there.

NO SWEARING IN THE STADIUM

We would like to remind all supporters that swearing is not permitted anywhere at Wembley Stadium.

NO SMOKING WITHIN THE STADIUM

We would like to remind all supporters that smoking – including e-cigarettes – is not permitted anywhere at Wembley Stadium.

PLEASE REMAIN SEATED

Please remain in your seats during play to ensure that the view is not obstructed for other spectators.

SPURS ASSOCIATION

IN EACH PROGRAMME THIS SEASON, BILLY SHAW CONNECTS A MEMBER OF THE OPPOSITION'S SQUAD TO ONE OF OUR PLAYERS THROUGH A CHAIN OF FORMER TEAM-MATES, CLUBS AND MATCHES. TODAY, WE TRACE A PATH BETWEEN LIVERPOOL'S RECENT SIGNING XHERDAN SHAQIRI AND OUR BELGIAN INTERNATIONAL CENTRE-HALF, TOBY ALDERWEIRELD

XHERDAN SHAQIRI

Swiss international attacker Xherdan Shaqiri started out at FC Basel before being snapped up by German giants Bayern Munich in 2012. A treble winner in 2013, lifting the Bundesliga, DFB-Pokal (German Cup) and Champions League, he again tasted league and cup glory with Bayern the following year before joining Stoke City via a short spell at Inter in 2015. He scored 15 goals in 92 games for the Potters but suffered relegation with them at the end of last term. Having represented Switzerland at the last three World Cups and Euro 2016, he joined Liverpool in July this year.

PETER CROUCH

A modern-day Spurs legend, towering striker 'Crouchy' was a team-mate of Shaqiri throughout the latter's time at Stoke. Now 37 years of age, the evergreen target man has been in the Potteries since leaving us in 2011, following a memorable two-year stint in our first team in which he contributed greatly to our qualification for and subsequent impressive run in the 2010/11 Champions League campaign. That spell saw his career come full circle, having started out with us as a youngster before going on to represent the likes of QPR, Portsmouth, Aston Villa, Norwich City, Southampton and Liverpool.

CALUM DAVENPORT

We signed Coventry City's Player of the Year, Calum Davenport, in 2004. A central defender, he had loan spells at West Ham, Southampton and Norwich City during the early stages of his Spurs career and it was while at the Saints that he crossed paths with Crouch, who was in the midst of his one season at St Mary's in 2004/05. Calum played 12 games for Southampton during the second half of that campaign. He left us for West Ham in 2007.

MARTON FULOP

Goalkeeper Marton Fulop arrived at Spurs in 2004 from MTK Budapest in his homeland of Hungary. Providing cover for Paul Robinson and Radek Cerny, he also had loan spells at Chesterfield, Coventry City and Sunderland before joining the Black Cats permanently in 2007. Initially a team-mate of Davenport in our colours, the pair linked up again at the Stadium of Light when Davenport was on loan at Sunderland from West Ham between February and May, 2009. Tragically, Marton died of cancer on 12 November, 2015, aged just 32. We continue to remember him fondly.

BEN ALNWICK

An interesting twist in the chain here as the careers of goalkeepers Fulop and Ben Alnwick are linked, not just by virtue of having been team-mates at Sunderland between November, 2006, and January, 2007, but owing to the fact that they ended up being part of a two-way transfer deal. We loaned Fulop to the Black Cats that November and he made his debut in a 2-1 Championship win over Luton Town a few weeks later. Sunderland signed him permanently just after the turn of the year in a deal that saw their youth team product Alnwick come the other way and join us at White Hart Lane. Alnwick made three first team appearances for us and had a series of loan spells before leaving for Barnsley in 2012.

MIDO

A month before Alnwick arrived at Barnsley, the Championship side secured the services of former Egypt international forward Mido. Having previously been with Zamalek in his homeland, the striker spent the first half of the 2012/13 campaign at Oakwell as a team-mate of Alnwick, making his one and only appearance for the Tykes in a 1-0 home defeat to Huddersfield Town in November, 2012. Mido was released by mutual consent in January, 2013, and announced his retirement soon afterwards. A Spurs player between 2005 and 2007, joining initially on loan from Roma, Mido was back at the club as recently as last month, appearing pitchside at half-time during our 3-1 victory over Fulham here at Wembley.

TOBY ALDERWEIRELD

During his visit to the national stadium for our last home game, Mido was seen catching up with a former Ajax team-mate in the form of Toby Alderweireld. Initially with the Dutch giants between 2001 and 2003, Mido returned to the Amsterdam outfit on loan from Middlesbrough in 2010 and spent the first half of the 2010/11 campaign in their squad along with Toby. Jan Vertonghen and Christian Eriksen were also starring for Ajax during that season. Belgian international defender Toby joined us from Atletico Madrid in the summer of 2015 and has, to date, made 112 appearances in our colours, scoring six goals.
